

Closer Than You Know

Maybe you wonder if He knows your name,
And maybe you question if His love remains.

Chorus

*Don't give up; He has always been closer than you know.
You can trust His love and power as you let go
Of the doubts and fears that weave throughout your soul.
Let Him heal the wounds, He's closer than you know.*

It's been a long time, but He has always been Patiently waiting; just call out to Him.

Repeat Chorus

If you're in darkness, speak a fervent prayer.
Angels surround you to let you know He's there.

He is closer than you know.
Take His hand and just let go.

*He has always been closer than you know.
You can trust His love and power as you let go.
Of the doubts and fears that weave throughout your soul.
Let Him heal the wounds, He's closer than you know, than you know.*
