

I Will Remember Him

Today is a rebirth, a beginning.
I will give my heart to Jesus Christ.
I will change my ways to be like my Savior;
So the spirit's light can dwell inside.

I covenant to follow His perfect footsteps.
And never forget what He has done for me.

Chorus

*I will remember him;
Follow where He has been.
If I strive to be faithful
I'll make it home
To His loving arms again.
I have taken upon His name;
I am reborn, I'm not the same.
I will show my Savior
I will remember Him.*

Through the sacrament each week I'll remember
The promise I have made to Him,
And recall the sacred day I was baptized
When He cleansed and washed away my sin.

In gratitude I'll follow His perfect footsteps
And never forget the love He has for me!

Repeat Chorus

How I love my Savior!
I will remember Him.
